

Holiday Club

The Holiday Club team would like to thank everyone who helped, in many different ways, to make their week so successful and enjoyable. It takes a lot of people working together, with all their many various talents, to make it the success and fun that it is.

So, many thanks, and also for everyone's prayers, and see you all again next year!!!

Sunday 29th September - Harvest Festival

There will be a bring and share lunch after the morning harvest service - to celebrate God's goodness to us and to enjoy fellowship with one another. If you are hoping to come please sign up on a sheet on the church notice board to help with ideas of numbers. This is a golden opportunity to invite along friends etc., especially those living by themselves. This year's charity is the Whitechapel Mission - see also Gloria's message at the foot of the page...

Tuesday 1st October - 'Later Life' Seminar

Sunday 20th October - Church Anniversary

To celebrate our anniversary, there will be breakfast at 9.45 followed by Cafe Church - a more informal worship led by Paul Dakin. Do please invite relatives, friends and neighbours to come along.

Saturday 7th December

From 12 to 2pm we will be very privileged to have Mary and Luke Foster, together with their children Barney and Martha, to come and share with us the work they are doing in Chile (Mary is the daughter of Isabel & Mike King). A light lunch will be provided.

Message from Gloria

"Thank you so much to all my lovely friends at Goffs Oak for your kindness and support for the Whitechapel Mission. Sadly the needs continue to increase so, as always, everything is much appreciated. Apart from clothing (including underwear and socks) - blankets, duvets, towels and toiletries are particularly welcome. Always happy to collect, just call 07919457135. With grateful thanks and God bless you all, Gloria Bull".
