A belated thank you...

Dear Enfield Staff and Friends, I have just returned from some Super's training and this is my first chance to express our deep thanks for the Enfield contingent that so kindly came up to Kingswinford last Saturday. It was humbling and wonderful to have the chance to see you all and to share that moment with you. Michele and I had a house full of family and I had the privilege of leading worship at Kingswinford the next day.

My prayers are with you all in Enfield - it seems strange not to be with you as the new year gets under way. My goal here will be to create a sense of prayerful, graceful mutual support that I have always valued so much during my time with you.

Rev. Alan.
